NOTES.—The banks in the first division of the table made returns to the Treasury Department.

To complete the table, the accounts of the three last-mentioned banks have been taken from the Treasury report of last year.

The Planters' Bank has branches at Manchester, Vicksburg, Port Gibson, Woodville, Monticello, Jackson, and Columbus.

The Agricultural Bank has a branch at Pontitoc.

The Commercial and Railroad Bank at Vicksburg has branches at Clinton, Vernon, and Manchester; and the Mississippi and Alabama Railroad Company a branch at Paulding; but it is believed that not more than one of these four branch banks was in operation at the dates given in the table.

In the loans and discounts are included the following amounts of suspended debt: Planters' Bank, $1,435,905; Agricultural Bank, $324,912; Grand Gulf Railroad and Banking Company, $115,123; Commercial Bank, Natchez, $8,283; Mississippi and Alabama Railroad, $1,506.

NOTES.—The Commercial Bank has branches at Brandon, Canton, Holmesville, and Shieldsboro'. The cashier of that bank says, in a letter dated November 13: "There has been no change of any consequence in the business of the bank since June 13, no new business having been done, and the greater part of the notes due having been renewed. The circulation has been decreased $5,000. The specie has not been changed."

In the loans and discounts are included the following amounts of suspended debt:—Commercial Bank, $245,307; Agricultural Bank, $557,619; Planters' Bank, $2,526,053.

Letters addressed to the other banks in Mississippi, soliciting a statement of their condition, have remained without reply, as have also letters to the late Governor and late Treasurer of that State.
