Jan. 11. 1840 New Orleans Price Current + Commercial Intelligencer

FLOUR.—Our stock has been considerably augmented this week by the receipt of a large part of the Flour in flat-boats, expected some time back, and the market being still without any demand for export, or only to a very limited extent, holders have been obliged to reduce their prices, and the small transactions of the week have been at $5.25 per bbl. for superfine, to which we alter our quotation. Some sales at this rate, on 60 days credit, were made yesterday, and we remark that the market has a decided tendency to further decline. Fine Flour is worth $4 75. The exports of the week amount to 2456 bbls. viz: 1056 to Kingston, Ja., 600 to Havana, 450 to Boston, 170 to New-York, and 200 to Mobile. The receipts of the week are 10,355 bbls.

PORK.—There is not the slightest improvement in the demand, and the lowest quotations of last week are barely maintained. Mess and M. O. have declined a little, the former being worth only $13, and the latter $12. Prime still maintains its price of $11. The arrivals of new Pork are very light. There has been rather a better inquiry for Hog-round, and the price has slightly advanced. We quote 5¾ a 6 cents per lb. Exports this week 125 bbls., 119 to Havana, and 6 to Pensacola. Received 1166 bbls.

BACON.—We have no change to report. There is a moderate inquiry for new Bacon at former quotations. The stock on hand is more than adequate to the present demand. No exports this week. The receipts are 302 hhds., 185 hhds. Hams, and 23,000 lbs. in bulk.

LARD.—A further reduction in the price of Lard has been submitted to since our last report, the receipts being still heavy, and a very limited inquiry for the article. We reduce our quotation to 9 cents, and we understand that sales even below this rate have been made. Exported 907 kegs, 790 to Havana, 100 to Kingston, Ja., and 17 to Boston. Arrived 3589 kegs.

BEEF.—There is still a moderate inquiry for this article, at some advance on our former quotations. Yesterday a sale at $12 for Prime was effected. Exported 136 bbls. to Boston. Arrived 176 bbls.

WHISKEY.—The stock on hand is light, and the receipts are only moderate, but the demand continues very limited; this, with the expectation of further supplies, has caused a decline in prices, and we now quote 40 a 41 cents per gallon. Exported 10 bbls. to Pensacola. Arrived 990 bbls.

GRAIN.—The supply on the Levee is very light, and prices have consequently advanced, although there has been but a very limited demand. We quote Shelled Corn at 60 a 62½ cents per bushel. There is no Corn in Ear in market. Oats are still held at the former rate, 37½ to 40 cents per bushel. Exported this week 995 sacks Shelled Corn, 600 to Kingston, Ja., and 395 to Pensacola. Arrived 4181 sacks Shelled Corn, 4706 bbls. in Ear, and 1700 bbls. Oats.

BAGGING AND BALE ROPE.—We have no alteration to report; there has been a good demand since our last notice, at 29 a 30 cents for Bagging, and 9 cents for Rope. Arrived this week 265 pieces Bagging and 359 coils Rope.

COFFEE.—The demand is very limited for every description. We quote prime Havana at 11¼ a 11½, middling and inferior at 10 a 10½ cents per lb. Rio is offering very freely at 11¼ at 11½ cents per lb. Arrived this week 2389 sacks Havana.

SALT.—We notice sales of two cargoes of Liverpool Salt this week at $1 50 to $1 62½ per sack. From store, the rates are reduced, and our quotations are, for Ground $1 62½ a $1 75, Blown $1 75 to $1 87½ per sack. There is no inquiry for Turks Island; several of the cargoes lately received remain unsold. Arrived this week 796 bbls.

RICE continues to be but little inquired for, and can now be purchased at $4 50 per 100 lbs.

HAY.—The arrivals of this article continue light, and the price is on the rise. We learn that offers of $1 25 per 100 lbs. have been made and refused: as yet, we do not advance our quotation. Arrived this week 600 bales.

CANDLES.—We have no alteration to notice. New Bedford Sperm are still worth 46 cents, Nantucket 45 cents.

OILS.—There is a good supply of all kinds on the market, and but a moderate demand: prices are unchanged.

LOGWOOD.—There is a good inquiry for this article at present, at $33 to $34 per ton.

EXCHANGE.—During this week Sterling Exchange has been in less demand than formerly, but we have not heard of any material decline having taken place: 9½ to 10 per cent. premium are still the rates for the best signatures. Exchange on Paris has been in good demand, and considerable amounts have changed hands at 5f. 20c. to 5f. 22½c. Bills on the North continue in request at the former rates of ¼ to ½ per cent. discount for those at 60 days' sight; ¾ to 1 per cent. premium for those at 30 days; and 2½ to 3 per cent. premium for short sight and sight bills, which are still in less demand than the first descriptions.

FREIGHTS.—Several engagements of American vessels have been made this week at 13-16d. per lb. for Cotton to Liverpool; and one British vessel has been engaged at ¾d. The rates for Havre are unchanged. In Coastwise Freights there is also a little more activity: we note an engagement for Boston at ⅞c. per lb. for Cotton. The rates for Sugar remain without alteration.

EXCHANGE.—Out Door.
