LUCIEN HERMANN, Secretary.

We are indebted to the politeness of mercantile friends for the following

LIVERPOOL,

Since our last Circular of 24th mand for Cotton has continued steady, the same extent as before; but there increased quantity offering, particularly ter qualities, which has given buyers slight advantage. This may be attributed account by the "British Queen," 28th instant, confirming the previous very favorable reports of the crop, both as to quantity and quality, showing, from the seasonable rains at the that the supply into the ports was likely more abundant. The low and middling remain steady and maintain relatively higher value than good and fine. merchantable is selling under 5¾d., and 6d. per lb., while good fair and good new crop, has been going at from 6¼d none can be quoted above the latter prime and fancy parcels of New-O Upland 6¾d., and fair Orleans and Mo lb. The export buyers have continued to a limited extent; but there has been thing doing on speculation; and the very generally appear still to confine the to the supply of their current wants, pression that the crop in the United prove to be 1,700,000 bales; which, the estimate most generally believed in this country. The stock in this port, ed at noon to-day, proves about 20,000 than the previous estimates; and, pated by many, it is calculated rather market. The sales for five days ended amounted to 10,250 bales, of which land at 5¾d. a 7¼d., with 30 at 7¾d.; 6d. a 8¼d.; 3740 Alabama and Mobile and 60 Sea Island at 20d. a 30d. per urday, the 28th instant, the business 4000 bales, yesterday about 3500, and estimated at 2500 bales.

It is thought that the Spinners are work, except such as have failed, or barrassed; but these causes must, prevent the consumption reaching the for some time to come, unless the trade factured Goods and Yarns, which has improved considerably, should become active and encouraging than it yet is. market is easier, which is attributed traction of trade more than to any other its future course must depend greatly wants of the country for foreign grain be.

The import of Cotton into Great year, contrasted with that of the two years, and the stocks in the ports each, will be found in the annexed ing a decrease in the total import comparison with last, of 315,000 bales 309,000 is in American Cotton. The the ports is 265,474, or 55,614 less than of last year; and it appears that the quantity from the ports for consumption this year 1,048,003 bales, being 210,500 less than year. As to the quantity actually consumed ing the year, it must, as usual, rest on as the stocks in the hands of spinners ascertained; but if it is admitted that 70,000 bales less than at this period last in the most general calculation, it would consumption of the year to have 1,130,000 bales, or about 80,000 less than the mated consumption of 1838.

The sales of Tobacco this month 550 hhds., consisting of 170 Virginia Stemmed, 35 Kentucky Leaf and and 1 Maryland; prices are rather stock in this port is 7240 hhds. against end of last year.

COTTON.—Upland 5¾ a 7¼d., Orleans bile 6 a 7¾, Alabama 5¾ a 6¾, Sea Stained 6 a 13.

TOBACCO.—Virginia Leaf stemmed 8¼ a 12¼d., Kentucky stemmed 10 a 11¼d. Flour, per bbl

PATTERSON & GEORGE,
COMMISSION MERCHANTS,
No. 10, Gravier-street, New-Orleans.
JOHN E PATTERSON. WM. W. GEORGE.

e transactions in Rio have been to a mo rate extent only; but owing chiefly to the pension of coastwise imports, holders nce more firmness at the quotations, 10½ 0¼.

SALT.—We note the sale of 800 sacks Liverpool Salt, of superior quality, re ved by ship United States, at $2. This cription is scarce, and held firm at $2 12½. arse Salt is plenty, and sold from store at 37½ a $1 50.

LIME.—There have been no arrivals of e this week, and prices have advanced in. Sales are now made at $2 a $2 50 n store.

HIDES AND SKINS.—There is a good and for both articles, but the transac s are limited to small lots of country les, which are readily taken up at 8 a 9 ts for Dry Salted. Deer Skins are in request, and several sales have been le during the week within the range of tations. Other kinds of Skins remain as quoted.

FURS.—There is but little doing in Furs, being offered in the market. The quo ns embrace the extreme rates paid for various descriptions.

LEAD.—Our quotations for Lead may be sidered nominal, as we have heard of no sactions for two weeks past. The re ts are generally put in store or tranship Arrived 5945 pigs. Exported 4780

RICE.—The supply continues very abund and prices have declined a fraction our last report. We place the quota at 4 cents, but note some sales at 3⅞, some choice lots at 4⅛. The demand is ly for the country trade, but we hear of large transactions.

FISH.—There is a rather more brisk de d for Mackerel as dealers from the in r come in for their supplies, and in instances a slight advance has been ined on the quotations, for small lots. other kinds of Fish our last week's es answer for the present. See quota

LEATHER.—The market is very regu the sales generally in small lots. We te Sole Leather at 20 a 23 cents.

DOMESTIC GOODS.—The market for ds is excessively dull for the season, this ach of business not having participated in improvement noted in the Grocery and duce market. The trade are well sup d with various kinds of Domestic Goods, prices of which will be found in the ta of quotations.

WOOL.—Our quotations for Wool are inal, there being none in the market at his time.

CANDLES.—The market is quite steady, and prices firm at 45 cents for New-Bedford and 43 a 47 cents for Nantucket.

OILS.—The market for Sperm. and Tan er's Oil is dull, and stocks fair. The quo tations embrace the limits of the transactions the various kinds.—We note the arrival of 500 cases and baskets Olive Oil, of which about half was sold at $4 62½.

WINES.—We observe some improve ment in the demand for Wines, but have no material change in prices, for which see quotations.

FEATHERS.—We have no sales to re port, but the quotations will be found full as high as the market will bear.

FRUITS.—There has been no addition to the stock since our last review of the mar ket, but the supply is still fully equal to the demand. Prices from store have varied but little, and we have placed the figures so as to represent the present state of the market. Our extreme quotations are obtained for choice lots of fresh Fruit for the Western trade, the lowest figures standing for par cels more or less damaged. Sicily Oranges are quoted at $3 per box.

EXCHANGE.—Since last week, the activity which we noticed in our last report, has continued unabated, and further im provement has taken place in the rates of Foreign and Domestic Exchange; the trans actions have been on a large scale, and the demand has readily met whatever has been offered for sale during the week. Sterling Exchange has been in active demand, and could only be procured in first rate signatures at 11½ per cent. premium, and bills to a considerable extent have been sold at that price. The supply is now very much reduced. Exchange on Paris has also improved, and is now held at 5f. 15c., buyers only.—Large transactions have taken place since our last report. Exchange on New-York is very scarce and in fair request. The last rates paid were 1½ per cent. pre mium for bills at 60 days sight, and 2½ per cent. for those at 30 days. Bills at 15 to 5 days sight are held at 2¾ to 4½ per cent. pre mium, but the demand is not very active for the last description. Exchange on Boston days sight at 2 per cent. premium. On Philadelphia at sight par.

FREIGHTS.—There has been but a very limited business in Freights since our last report, owing to the scarcity of disengaged ships. No further advance on Freights for European ports has been yielded by ship pers. We notice some improvement in coastwise Freights. We now quote Flour at 1 25 per bbl., Pork, &c., at $1 50. These rates are freely paid. Cotton to New-York and Boston 1½c. per lb.
