NOTES.

1. The Farmers' Bank has branches at Wilmington, Newcastle, and Georgetown; and the Bank of Smyrna a branch at Milford.
2. The active capital of the Bank of Smyrna had, at the date given in the second division of the table, been reduced to $80,668, by the receipt, in payment of debts, of stock of the bank to the amount of $7,482.
3. The Farmers' Bank, the Bank of Wilmington and Brandywine, and the Bank of Smyrna, were rechartered on the 18th of February, 1837, for a period of twenty years. The charter of the Bank of Delaware has yet fourteen years to run.
4. At the last session of the Legislature of Delaware, a bill was passed to incorporate the Brandywine Manufacturing and Banking Company; but the stock was not taken, and the charter expired on the 18th of September last.

NOTE.—The above table has been prepared from returns made to the Legislature.

The following banks have made returns of the amount of their own stocks held by themselves, viz:

Commercial and Farmers', at par - -	$56,706	Franklin - - - - -	$15,686
Bank of Baltimore - - - -	1,800	Union - - - - -	520,850
Farmers and Merchants' - - -	40,000		635,072
Merchants' - - - - -	30

If this amount be deducted from the sum given in the first division of the table, the nett amount of the capital of the eight old banks of Baltimore will appear to be $6,845,594; which sum is liable to further reduction, if the Marine Bank and the Mechanics' Bank hold any of their own stocks.

The Union Bank owns Baltimore and Ohio Railroad stock to the amount of $446,354, and Maryland five per cents to the amount of $26,000. The Franklin Bank holds Maryland six per cents to the amount of $45,600.

The rest of the stocks held by the Baltimore banks consists principally of Cumberland and Boonsborough Turnpike stock.

NOTES.

1. The three banks first mentioned in the table made returns to the Legislature of Maryland; the remaining six made returns to the Treasury Department.
2. The table is believed to include all the banks in actual operation in the State of Maryland, except the Mineral Bank of Cumberland, which has made no reply to different letters from this Department, soliciting a statement of the condition of the bank.
3. The Commercial Bank of Millington (mentioned in former reports from this Department) has surrendered its charter, and its affairs are now nearly wound up.
4. The Farmers' Bank of Maryland has branches at Easton and Frederick.
5. Tables K 3, 4, 5, and 6, have been prepared from returns made to the Treasury Department.
