1850.

12. A statement of the state taxes charged in the several counties for the years 1856 and 1857, amount collected, &c.

13 and 14. Tabular statements of personal property, and the value of real property taxable in the years 1856 and 1857.

15. A statement of state lands sold, the amount sold for, and the number of acres remaining unsold.

16. A statement of the state indebtedness purchased with the school fund, and the amount of said fund placed in the hands of the governor for that purpose.

17. A statement of state indebtedness purchased with the state land fund, and the amount of said fund drawn by the governor for that purpose.

18. A statement of state indebtedness purchased with the Central Railroad fund, and the amount of said fund drawn by the state treasurer in payment thereof.

19. A statement of the state indebtedness purchased with the Central Railroad fund, and the amount of said fund drawn by the governor in payment therefor.

20 to 26. The several statements and tables exhibiting the condition and affairs of the banks of the state, organized under the general banking law.

The bank of Lucas & Simonds, and the Quincy City Bank, have furnished evidence of publication, as required by law, and withdrawn their securities—and due notice having been given by me, as required by the act of 1857, section 1, page 220, in the cases of the Farmers' Bank, City Bank, Mechanics' and Farmers' Bank, the Phœnix Bank, the Bank of Rockford, and the Union Bank, and three years having elapsed from the date of the protests of the same respectively, the securities of the same have been surrendered to the stockholders, or are retained here for evidence of ownership.

The law relative to the final settlement of the affairs of banks, (thirty-seventh section of the general banking law,) not being applicable to banks closing business under the act of 1855, it may be necessary to determine by law when, and how their affairs shall be finally closed.

The statement of the treasurer's accounts exhibits the finances of the state in a sound and flourishing condition. The punctuality in the payment of the taxes, furnishes gratifying evidence of the prosperity of our state and the good faith of our citizens. The amount of revenue in the treasury applicable to the payment of ordinary and contingent expenses of the state government is $153,074 19.

The statements of the value of taxable property, and the amount of taxes levied for the current year, 1858, have not as yet been received from the several counties, and therefore cannot be included in this report.

The aggregate value of taxable property for the year 1856 is $349,-951,272, being an increase over the previous year of $15,552,847, and the aggregate valuation for the year 1857 is $407,477,367, being an increase in 1857 over 1856 of $57,526,095, equal to about sixteen and one-half per cent. on the reduction of 1856.

No. 20.
