The Bank of North America and the Central Bank owe $4,000 and $19,000, respectively, of their own stock, which sums being deducted from their nominal capital leaves their net capital as given in the table.

The Chasco Bank went into operation only on the 31st of March, 1857, and for that reason returns nothing but its capital.

The returns of the Litchfield County Bank and the Uncas Bank are dated January 1, 1857.

The Phœnix Bank has a branch at Litchfield.
