The bill from the senate, "A bill to amend an act entitled 'an act to fix the rates of toll for grinding,'" approved April 12th, 1837, was taken up, read three times, and passed.

The joint resolution from the senate relative to a light-house at or near the mouth of the Detroit river, was taken up and concurred in.

The bill from the senate, "A bill to furnish each organized county with a complete set of weights and measures," was taken up, read the 1st and 2d time and committed to the committee on ways and means.

On motion of Mr. Ely, the house resolved itself into a committee of the whole, Mr. Cressy in the chair, on "A bill authorizing the building of certain dams therein named," and after spending some time therein, the committee rose, and through their chairman reported the same to the house, with sundry amendments. On motion of Mr. Arden, said bill and amendments were laid on the table.

The following message was received from the Executive, through his private secretary, Mr. Jackson:

"To the Senate and House of Representatives:—

I have this day deposited in the Michigan State Bank, to the credit of the state, one hundred and three thousand dollars, received on a warrant drawn in my favor by the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States."

STEVENS T. MASON.

February 13th, 1837.

The "bill to provide for taking the census," with the amendments reported by the committee on the judiciary, as a substitute for said bill, heretofore laid on the table, was on motion of Mr. Kingsley, taken up for consideration and the amendments concurred in. Said bill was on motion, ordered to be engrossed and read a third time to-morrow.

The following message from the senate was received through their secretary:

Mr. Speaker:—I am directed by the senate to inform your honorable body that the senate have passed the bill entitled "An act to amend an act entitled 'an act to incorporate the village of Coldwater,'" with sundry amendments, which they ask the concurrence of the house in.

And the senate have passed the bill entitled "An act to amend an act entitled 'an act to incorporate the Bank of Washtenaw,'" with sundry amendments, in which they ask the concurrence of the house.

And the senate have passed the bill entitled "An act to amend an act entitled 'an act to incorporate the Bank of Niles,'" with sundry amendments, in which they ask the concurrence of the house.

And the senate have passed the bill entitled "An act to amend an act entitled 'an act to incorporate the Bank of Michigan,'" with sundry amendments, in which they ask the concurrence of the house.

And the senate have passed the bill entitled "An act to amend an act entitled 'an act to incorporate the Bank of the River Raisin,'" with sundry amendments, in which they ask the concurrence of the house.

Bank of Washtenaw,
Ann Arbor, February 11, 1837.

Sir:—I have the honor to transmit herewith a statement of the condition of this institution, with a request that the same may be laid before the Hon. the House of Representatives, together with this communication.

This statement contains all the information (as far as the bank is concerned,) which the bank commissioner was requested, by a resolution of the house of the 25th ult. to furnish.

The commissioner in his report made in compliance with the resolution referred to above, was pleased to say that "the bank of Washtenaw has made no report," thereby evidently conveying the idea, whether intended or not, that the institution, although in duty bound to do so, had neglected to make such report.

The language used by the commissioner on this occasion is well calculated, unexplained, to produce an unjust and consequently an unfavorable impression upon the legislature and the public at large, as regards the condition of this bank—to guard against which and to place the matter in its true light, is the particular object of this communication.

If the commissioner, in stating the fact that no report had been made to this bank, had stated another fact, that is, that it had not been called upon for a report, this communication would have been rendered unnecessary.

But inasmuch as he has not thought proper to make the explanation, it becomes my duty to do so.

I respectfully state that for a report from this bank, although his authority to require one is not questioned, would have met with respectful attention, and as a matter of courtesy, cheerfully complied with.

I take the liberty respectfully to add, that a copy of our semi-monthly statement was forwarded to his Excellency, the Governor, on the 6th January—and that the provision in the charter of this institution which makes it the duty of the president and cashier, whenever thereto required, to furnish to the legislature a statement of the condition, was at any and all times be cheerfully complied with.

I am sir, with great respect,
Your most obt. servt.,
E. J. CAMP, Cash'r.

To Charles W. Warren, Esq.
Speaker of the house of Representatives, Detroit.

The communication having been read, it was, with the statement accompanying the same, referred to the committee on banks and incorporations.

The following petitions were presented and appropriately disposed of:

By Mr. Ely, the petition of Jonathan Kingsley and others, praying for the incorporation of a company to construct a railroad from Detroit to Pontiac.

Bank of Washtenaw,
Ann Arbor, February 11, 1837.

Sir:—I have the honor to transmit herewith a statement of the condition of this institution, and a request that the same may be laid before the House of Representatives, together with this communication.

This statement contains all the information which so far as the bank is concerned, which the commissioner was requested, by a resolution of the house of the 25th ult. to furnish.

The commissioner in his report made in accordance with the resolution referred to, has seemingly refused to say that "the bank of Washtenaw has refused to report," thereby evidently conveying the idea, whether intended or not, that the bank, although in duty bound to do so, had refused to make such report.

The language used by the commissioner on this occasion is well calculated, unexplained, to produce an unjust and consequently an unfavorable impression upon the legislature and the public mind, as regards the condition of this bank—to prevent which and to place the matter in the true light, is the particular object of this communication.

If the commissioner, in stating the fact that no report had been made to this bank, had stated another fact, that is, that it had not been called upon for a report, this communication would have been rendered unnecessary.

But inasmuch as he has not thought proper to make the explanation, it becomes my duty to state that a request from him for a report from this bank, although in his authority to require one to be made, would have met with respectful attention, and as a matter of courtesy, cheerfully complied with.

I therefore most respectfully request that a copy of our semi-monthly statement of the 10th inst. to his excellency, the Governor, may be laid before the legislature, and that the president of the above institution, which makes it the duty of the president and cashier, whose residence is permanently fixed in the legislature, to make out of the above statement any and all items he shall deem necessary.

I am, with great respect,

Your most obedient servant,

To Charles W. Whittlesey, Esq.
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

The communication being read, it was laid with the statement accompanying it on the table, and ordered to be printed.
