

UTILIZING DATA TO MANAGE NEIGHBORHOOD CHANGE

Friday, October 28

- 8:00 — 8:45 Registration and breakfast
- 8:45 — 9:00 Introduction and welcome
Dorothy Bridges, Senior Vice President, Community Development and Outreach, Federal Reserve Bank of Minneapolis
- 9:00 — 10:30 Using data to target neighborhood stabilization and post-disaster recovery efforts
Moderator: Marina Lyon, Vice President, Pohlad Foundation
Jeff Matson, Community GIS Coordinator, Center for Urban and Regional Affairs, University of Minnesota
Cherie Shoquist, Foreclosure Project Coordinator, City of Minneapolis
Roberta Englund, Executive Director, Folwell Neighborhood Association
David Hayhoe, Lieutenant, Minneapolis Police Department 4th Precinct
- 10:30 — 10:45 Break
- 10:45 — 12:15 Regional partnership efforts that use data to maximize and target scarce resources
Moderator: Michael Grover, Community Development Manager, Federal Reserve Bank of Minneapolis
Jessica Deegan, Housing Program Policy Specialist, Minnesota Housing
Jim Thares, Community Development Director, City of Big Lake
Becky Rom, President, Twin Cities Community Land Bank
- 12:15 — 12:30 Break
- 12:30 — 1:30 Lunch and keynote: Utilizing data to manage neighborhood change, a national perspective
Kathryn L.S. Pettit, Senior Research Associate, Metropolitan Housing and Communities Policy Center, Urban Institute, Washington D.C.
- 1:30 — 2:00 Up close and personal: Using Minnesota Compass neighborhood profiles to understand and improve our cities
Andi Egbert, Research Associate, Wilder Research
- 2:00 — 3:00 A conversation with the experts: What you need to know in order to use data effectively and avoid common pitfalls.
(Nine concurrent sessions—see folder insert for details.)
- 3:00 Closing remarks and adjourn