V 1.—NEW JERSEY.
MORRIS COUNTY BANK.

Interrogatories addressed, propounded, and administered to Henry A. Ford, president, and James Wood, cashier, of the Morris County Bank, under an act of the Legislature of the State of New Jersey, entitled "An act to provide for an investigation of the condition of the banks of this State, and for other purposes," passed the 11th day of November, A. D. 1837.

1. What is the amount of the capital stock of your bank actually paid in?
2. Is any, and, if any, what amount of the capital stock of your bank is pledged as security for notes or other obligations given in payment of any instalment or instalments on said stock?
3. Is any, and, if any, what amount of the capital stock of your bank is pledged as security for notes discounted, or held by your bank, otherwise than in the manner mentioned in the last inquiry, or for loans made by your bank?
4. Is any, and, if any, what amount of the capital stock of your bank is the property of your bank?
5. What amount of specie, and of gold and silver bullion, had your bank on hand and actually in your possession and belonging to your bank on the day of the suspension of specie payments by your bank; what amount on the first day of November, eighteen hundred and thirty-seven; and what is the amount at this time?
6. Has your bank taken any measures to increase your stock of specie or bullion beyond your usual amount, preparatory to this investigation; and, if so, to what amount?
7. Had your bank made any, and, if any, what disposition of your specie or bullion other than in the redemption of your bills, and the payment of your indebtedness, since the period of the suspension of specie payments by your bank?
8. What was the amount of the circulation of your bank at the period of the suspension of specie payments by your bank, what amount on the first day of November, eighteen hundred and thirty-seven, and what is the amount at this time?
9. What is the fair valuation of all your real estate, and in what does it consist?
10. What is the amount of balance due to your bank from other banks? What good, what doubtful, and what bad?
11. What is the amount of notes of other banks now held by, and the property of, your bank? What good, what doubtful, and what bad?
12. What was the amount of notes, drafts, and bills of exchange discounted or held, and loans made, by your bank, and the property of your bank, at the period of the suspension of specie payments by your bank; what is the amount at this time; what good, what doubtful, and what bad?
13. Is any, and, if any, what amount of such notes, drafts, bills of exchange, or loans secured to the bank by mortgage, or otherwise, on real estate?
