NOTES.

The preceding abstract is taken from returns rendered to this office during the present month, (September, 1839,) in reply to a circular addressed to all the banks in the Commonwealth, requesting an account of their condition on the first Saturday of May, 1837, the same being near the time of the general suspension of specie payments. The abstract embraces all the banks existing in the State at that period, excepting seven, viz: American, Franklin, and Lafayette, in Boston; the Agricultural, in Pittsfield; Pacific, in Nantucket; Amherst, and Roxbury. From these seven I have not received returns; the three Boston banks, however, made statements of their condition to the Boston associated banks on the 11th of May, 1837, as exhibited in the following aggregates, viz:

State of the American, Lafayette, and Franklin Banks, on the 11th of May, 1837.

Capital	$300,000 00
Specie	60,312 00
Circulation	136,875 00

Bills of other city banks	23,205 00
Loans on stock	55,000 00
Post notes	197,467 00

I have no means of showing the condition of the four banks out of Boston, at the period indicated, other than what may be gathered from their regular returns in the autumn previous, or the autumn subsequent, to the general suspension.

JOHN P. BIGELOW,

Secretary of the Commonwealth.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
Boston, September 24, 1839.

[A return, subsequently received, of the condition of the Pacific Bank, of Nantucket, has been incorporated with the above; and the total will be found in the compendious statement of the condition of the banks of the different States at different periods, table B B of this document.]
